Dass Friend,—After consultation among the friends, it was thought expedient to sell the Fifty. If we had kept her, we should have been obliged to spend $400 next year for a suit of sails, &c. The gross process were
From this we have deducted Mr. Jackson's note, $364.22

How the loss of $245 has been apportioned will appear by the above table, compiled by Mr. FISHER.

With a few exceptions, all the subscribers have concluded to contribute the balances above due them towards building a new and larger boat, which Capt. Brans: has now on the stocks under remarkably favorable auspices, and which is to be used for the same purposes as the Filtri. Cust. Brans: will send to each subscriber a certificate of his ownership in the new boat as soon as it is completed.

Herepectally, yours.

AUSTIN BEARSE, WM. I. BOWDITCH.
